

ABOUT THE CAST

---

Margarita Jamero

(Helena) (she/her) is an actor and writer from Sacramento with a BA in Theater and Performance Studies from Stanford University ('24). She most recently worked with Contemporary Asian Theater Scene in San Jose, Stanford TAPS, and Stanford Graduate Repertory. Passionate about new works, she has acted in six developmental productions including her own original full-length play, ROACH HOUSE.

Alexis Arriaga (Belmira), a multidisciplinary artist from Corpus Christi, Texas, has spent a decade honing her craft in Sacramento. A versatile talent, she has collaborated with Teatro Nagual and Teatro Espejo, notably playing Lulu in Tanya Saracho's "ENFRASCADA." Beyond theatre, Alexis has made her mark in film as an actress, director, and writer, earning an award for directing at the Lacorne International Film Festival. She also holds a law degree and spends her days as a family law attorney. Her upcoming debut with Big Idea Theatre marks an exciting new chapter and she is grateful for the opportunity.

Isaac Quezada (Moises)

is a 1st generation Mexican American educator and political activist. He has previously worked with Teatro Espejo and now debuting in Big Idea Theatre. Quezada hopes to continue lending support to Latine performing arts and story telling. He is also currently producing an original documentary titled "2 STEPS FORWARD 4 STEPS BACK" a political documentary that follows the 2024 election of Mexico and the United States.